

Your Future Begins NOW!

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS:

Do you have significant limitations with any of these activities?

- Learning
- Hearing
- Seeing
- Communicating
- Physical activities
- Coping with stress

WV Division of Rehabilitation Services counselors can help high school students with disabilities prepare and plan for their working future.

Pre-Employment Transition Services include:

- Job exploration counseling
- Work-based learning experiences
- Counseling on postsecondary education/training
- Workplace readiness skills
- Self-advocacy instruction

WEST VIRGINIA DIVISION OF
REHABILITATION SERVICES 1-800-642-8207

PATHWAYS to the FUTURE

Presented By

WEST VIRGINIA DIVISION OF
REHABILITATION SERVICES

The Pathways to the Future website is a collection of resources, tools and people to help students, including those with disabilities, through the journey from youth to adulthood. For more information visit:

PathwaysWV.org

